Hailing from Hackensack, New Jersey via Lower East Side, NYC, Walter "HYPE" Hall has proven to not only be a multi-talented creator, but a scholar of music and the arts. Getting his start on trumpet at the age of 11, HYPE matriculated through school, teaching himself the Drums and the Piano in the process. HYPE has played in churches ranging from local to mega-size and has worked as a drum tech for many people ranging from Lauryn Hill to Living Colour. Over the years, he has also developed HYPE•Life.TV, a VLOG series that he shoots, directs, and edits himself in order to show people what he was never shown-tbe journey. His Journey. He also serves as President of an Indie Label based out of NYC, Hollatainment Records™, currently rolling out Rapper "Tenn Stacks" projects. He also has his own Company that covers everything from Studio & Live Touring Teching to Video/Audio Services, HYPE Music Shop. Some may say HYPE wears many hats, but if you ask him, this is ONLY the Beginning.
